PROBABLE CAUSE STATEMENT

The complaint states that Fabiola LOPEZ-Martinez, David ROJAS-Tejes and Veronica CRUZ-Ramos are citizens of a country other than the United States; that said aliens have admitted they are deportable; that their testimony is material, that it is impracticable to secure their attendance at the trial thereof by subpoena and they are all material witness in relation to this criminal charge and should be held or admitted to bail as prescribed in Title 18, United States Code, Section 3144.

On March 25, 2008 at approximately 2255 hours, Jose Eduardo GALVEZ-Aragon (D1) applied for admission to the United States from Mexico via the vehicle primary lanes of the San Ysidro Port of Entry as the driver of a 1992 Nissan Maxima. D1 presented a DSP-150 bearing the name Jose Alfredo PEREZ-Castaneda as proof of admissibility to a Customs and Border Protection (CBP) Officer. Accompanying D1 as visible passengers were Fabiola LOPEZ-Martinez (MW1) who presented a DSP-150 bearing the name Estefania FORTIS-Segura and Marcelina AGUIRRE-Lagunas who presented a DSP-150 bearing the name of Francisa FLORES Gonzalez. The CBP Officer obtained a negative Customs declaration from D1. The CBP Officer suspected D1, MW1 and AGUIRRE-Lagunas were imposters to the documents presented and escorted the vehicle with its occupants to secondary for further inspection.

In secondary, three people were found concealed in the trunk of the vehicle. The three concealed persons were identified as David ROJAS-Tejes (MW2), Veronica CRUZ-Ramos (MW3) and Roberto ZARAGOZA Navarro. D1, MW1 and AGUIRRE were verified to be impostors to the documents presented. All occupants of the vehicle were identified as citizens of Mexico without legal documents to enter into the United States.

D1 was advised of his Miranda Rights, acknowledged his rights and elected to answer questions without an attorney present. D1 admitted knowledge of the concealed aliens. D1 admitted a man by the name of "Padrino" provided him with the DSP-150 and vehicle. D1 stated he was originally going to be charged $3,500.00 to be smuggled into the United States but would not have to pay if he agreed to drive the vehicle across the border.

D1 stated he was guided to the San Ysidro Port of Entry by a lead vehicle described as a red 1995 Toyota Camry. CBP records checks to include vehicle and passenger crossing history link Francisco PEREZ-Torres (D2) to the lead vehicle. CBP investigations identify D2 as a non-immigrant in possession of a valid DSP-150 Border Crossing Card. D1 was presented with a photographic line-up display and identified D2 as the driver of the lead vehicle he was instructed to follow through the border on March 25, 2008. D1 also identified D2 as the driver of the vehicle he was instructed to follow through the border when he was apprehended for alien smuggling on November 17, 2007, November 28, 2007 and December 8, 2007.

During separate videotaped interviews, MW1, MW2 and MW3 admitted they are citizens of Mexico without legal documents to enter the United States. MW1, MW2 and MW3 stated they were to pay between $1,500.00 and $3,000.00 to be smuggled into the United States. MW1, MW2 and MW3 stated they were going to California to seek employment and visit family.
